Christmas Tree Lighting

The Town of Wellton and Parks & Recreation would like to thank all of the volunteers who had a hand in making the Wellton Christmas Tree Lighting on Saturday, December 16, 2017 a success this year.

A Special Thanks to our "Visitor from the North" (Darren Simmons), and "Santa's Helpers" - US Border Patrol Explorers. They all did such a wonderful job with the kids.

Our "Refreshment Elves" from Coach Stop RV Park did a spectacular job with the cocoa, coffee, hot cider and cookies. Thank you guys! You make it easy every year.

Thank you to the Tier Drop RV Park Elves for stuffing the candy bags for the kids again this year.

Ed Hoffman coordinated this year's Christmas Musical Program. Thanks again Ed!

Wellton Elementary School Students greatly contributed with their artistic ornaments on the Christmas tree decorations around the park.

As always, the Town Staff did an excellent job decorating West Side Park for the festivities. A thanks to all of the Staff.
